

I don't think that it is right that the NAB can dictate what can be carried and broadcast over a pay radio system. I love XM radio and its offerings and it would be a huge blow to satellite radio to limit what they are allowed to broadcast. Satellite radio provides quality and variety that I can not find anywhere else.